Born in Massachusetts and raised in Rwanda, East Africa, I have lived in countries throughout Southeast Asia, Central America, and in several US states. I attended schools in Redlands, Loma Linda, Calimesa, and Riverside, where I currently reside. I have been part of Riverside's Eastside Arthouse for three years, assisting in and leading large scale public art projects from Hemet to Claremont, and participating in group shows and solo exhibitions throughout Inland SoCal. I am a husband, a father of two, and an active member of the SoCal arts community.
